Two, $1,000 Scholarship Opportunities For African-American Males

The Ronald W. Sims Memorial Scholarship is designed for academically-talented, graduating, African-American males who are applying to a 4-Year, degree granting, college or university as a full time student.

The Henry Montgomery Leadership Scholarship is designed for graduating African-American males who participated in JROTC throughout high school and are applying to a 4-Year, degree granting, college or university as a full time student.

Requirements:

Each applicant is required to have, at least, a 2.8 cumulative GPA (4.0 Scale), a 400 Math and 430 Verbal on the SAT or an 18 English and a 16 Math score on the ACT, a strong Community Service record, and a desire to be a leader. Both scholarships are given with no stipulations for their use except that either must be used to further each recipient's college education. As a result, each recipient must show proof of admission and enrollment at a 4-Year, degree granting college or university to receive these scholarship funds.
